

Health Professions Council
Council 11th May 2006

Payment of Partners for the Annual Conference in November 2006

Executive Summary and Recommendations

The Council is asked to agree if it is appropriate to pay HPC Partners an attendance allowance for attending the Partner Conference in November 2006.

Introduction

Following the pending re-appointment process, there will be approximately 400 partners working with the HPC. It is anticipated that approximately 300 partners will attend the annual conference. Partners receive a daily attendance allowance of £130.

Travel and accommodation for Partners is accounted for in the communications budget.

Decision

The Council is asked to agree the following: That Partners should or should not receive an attendance allowance of £130 per person.

Background information

Partners did not receive payment for their attendance in September 2004.

Resource implications

To be paid from the communications budget

Financial implications

Payment will be for one day only (28th November)  $300 \times £130 = \mathbf{£39,000}$
